DETAILED ACTION

1. This Office Action is in response to correspondence filed June 11, 2007 in reference to application 10/696,113. Claims 1 and 4-7 are pending in the application and have been examined.

Response to Amendment

2. The amendments to the claims filed June 11, 2007 have been considered and accepted in this office action. Claims 1 and 4-7 have been amended and claims 2, 3, and 8-16 have been cancelled.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments, see Section III, pages 7 and 8 of the amendment, filed June 11, 2003, with respect to claim 1 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claim 1 under 35 U.S.C 103(a) has been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1 and 4-7 are allowed.
5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
6. Consider claim 1, Bordeaux, Hoffberg and Zoarez does not teach or fairly suggest the following limitations in succession:

responsive to determining said language of said text in said web page, selecting a voice recognition software program of said language of said text from a plurality of voice recognition software programs that are each operable for transcribing a different language, and using said selected voice recognition software to transcribe said audio file, and responsive to using said selected another alternative voice recognition software program to transcribe said audio file, determining whether said audio file was successfully transcribed by said selected another alternative voice recognition software program, and if not, continuing to (i) successively select another remaining voice recognition software program from said plurality of voice recognition software programs and (ii) use said selected another remaining voice recognition software program to transcribe said audio file until said audio file is successfully transcribed.

Although Bordeaux, Hoffberg and Zoarez may teach some of the above limitations separately, there is no motivation or fair suggestion to combine them in the manner of the limitations above. These arts when combined with the prior art of record fail to teach or fairly suggest the succession of the above limitations.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
